Pastor's Ponderings

As we approach Holy Week, we wait for the triumphant entry into the city.

We wait for palms to be waived and the masses to shout "Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!"

We wait for him to enjoy a final meal with those that he is closest to.

We wait for an act of remembrance and proclaim it the Lord's Supper.

We wait for a single kiss to turn over the one that they seek.

We wait for the judgement of those who keep the law.

We wait for the cock to crow three times to admit denial.

We wait for his trial in front of the one who washes their hands of all of it.

We wait for the people to turn their backs on him.

We wait for the torture, the suffering and anguish.

We wait for the ripped flesh and the crown of thorns.

We wait for the journey to Golgotha with the tree in tow.

We wait for the flesh piercing nails that jar every inch of his being.

We wait for the sour wine and dispersions cast.

We wait for the final cry to the Creator.

We wait for the temple curtain to be torn in two.

We wait for the body to be taken down and laid to rest.

We wait and hope that the prophecies are fulfilled otherwise it is all for naught.

We wait for reconciliation and redemption.

We wait for the women to hear and see him and to be the first to proclaim.

We wait to know that he is the Messiah.

We wait to shout Alleluia! He is risen! He is risen indeed!

But until then, we wait.

Come on out to the next Journey Together Cross Generational Sunday School this Sunday, April 6 at 1015am.

All ages and abilities are welcome! To make this successful, we need folks to help each month. If want more info, please contact Pastor Myron.

Mark your calendars for April 12th from 9am-12pm!

There are many little projects that need to be done so that way we can make sure that the building looks great for Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday.

Whether you can stay for an hour or three, any assistance is greatly appreciated! All ages and abilities are welcome!

Coffee with Clergy

Come on out for Coffee with Clergy the third Tuesday of each month from 8-10am at Hawthorne Coffee Roasters, which is just north of Prince of Peace. The next day will be Tuesday, April 15th.
